IMPORTANT FROM ATLANTA.

The Rebels Make Three Desperate Attacks on that Place-They are Promptly Regulsed-The Enemy then Retreat Towards Macon.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 11 -One of the editors of the Philadelphia Bulletin, just arrived from the front, reports that Monday last a. m., at daylight, the enemy attacked our pickets south of Atlanta, and killed one and wounded two of the 3d Indiana, but subsequently fell back. On Wednesday morning the enemy made three attacks on Atlanta, shell being thrown as far as the rolling mills. The most desperate attack was made on the Rough and Ready road. The enemy's artillery was within one hundred yards of our works, and their infantry and dismounted cavalay within two hundred yards. Our men aroused from slumber, quickly manned the defences and soon drove the rebels off. There was no Federal loss. The enemy were part of Young's command, and finally retreated toward Macon.

Our army are in excellent spirits and well supplied with rations.

FROM THE FRONT.

The Enemy make a Sortie and Attempt to Penetrate Our Lines-They are met with a Sharp Fire and Beat a Hasty Retreat. [Correspondence Associated Press.] HEADQUARTERS ARMY POTOMAC, Nov. 11 .-

On Wednesday evening, about 7 o'clock, a force of the enemy were discovered massing in front of our line near Steadman, when the guns of the fort opened fire, driving them to their works to seek shelter. The enemy's batteries replied briskly for a short time, but by our shells and mortars they were soon silenced. A force of about one hundred and fifty shortly afterward made a sortie from their lines, and attempted to penetrate ours, but being met by a salute from the pickets, were not long in finding their way back under cover. A lieutenant in the 8th U. S heavy artillery was fataily wounded yesterday when behind policy of shooting at every man they see, our men are forced to retaliate accordingly. The pickets in frent of the 2d corps were briskly engaged most of last night, and the report of musketry at times was almost continuous. This morning all is quiet.

The commissioners and agents from Philadelphia arrested on charge of issuing incorrectly printed blanks and tally lists have been ordered to Washington for examination by the Secretary of War. They start this morning. W. D. McGregor.

FROM MISSOURI.

FORT SMITH, Nov 11 .- The rebel General Price turned westward from Cane Hill, on the 4th or 6th instant. General Thayer moved his force up the north side of the river from here, for the purpose of attacking Price, but fearing that Cooper would move toward Fort Smith with seven thousand men, he thought it best to return. General Thayer can hold this place against Price, having plenty of supplies, artillery, and ammunition.

The Reported Evacuation of Atlanta. CINCINNATI, Nov. 12 .- The Gazette's Nash ville dispatch, denies the reported evacuation and burning of Atlanta and destruction of the Chattanooga and Atlanta railroad.

Fire in Maine.

AUBURN, ME., Nov. 11 .- This afternoon the Auburn Hall, in this city, together with three stores beneath and two adjoining buildings, were destroyed by fire. The loss is $20,000, on which there is an insurance of $11,000.

Howe's Songs of Ireland .- From John F Ellis, 306 Penna. avenue, we have received a copy of Howe's Songs of Ireland, containing 175 choice songs and ballads, including fifty of Moore's Irish melodies, &c. This collection of Hibernia's musical gems is arranged for the piano forte and melodeon, and is thus admirably adapted for popular use.

A PROPOSAL TO EMANCIPATE THE SLAVES OF CUBA.—A letter from Havana says: "A committee of influential persons has waited on General Dulce with a petition, to be presented through him to Isabel II., that all negroes be declared free after the expiration of twenty-four years from January 1st, 1865, each receiving a salary during the last four years of eighteen dollars per month, the greater part of which may be retained until the freedom of the slave is accomplished."

One of the soldiers who was killed by the recent accident on the Lafayette and Indianapolis railroad had been confined thirteen months over his time in Libby Prison. Most of those killed had served over three years and were returning home. Some soldiers who were on the train became exasperated, and wanted to hang the engineer of the cattle-train an early hour from City Point. The Webster brought up another batch of thirteen rebel deserters, including one who brought his wife with him. This man, after making his escape from the rebels, returned to his home and exchanged his rebel scrip with his mother for a small amount of silver; after which, he took his wite and succeeded in making his way into our lines. These deserters say that Gen. Lee has prohibited the placing of conscripts upon the picket line, owing to the fact that so many of them deserted. Picket duty is now performed by the veterans entirely, but numbers of them desert also when opportunities present themselves. The bodies of Captain N. Underhill, 14th New York artillery; Lieut. R. boats will leave here at 3 o'clock p. m.

Rear Admiral David D. Porter, writing to the Navy Department from on board his flagship Malvern, in Hampton Roads, under date of November 10, says that some days since he sent the U. S. steamer Stepping Stones up to Monjack Bay, to put a stop to the smuggling going on there. The Stepping Stones returned on the morning of the 10th, having in tow two sloops—the Reliance and Little Elmer, captured for attempting to run the blockade. These vessels had no contraband goods on board at the time of their capture, but they were evidently engaged in the contraband trade, as their captains could give no satisfac-tory account of themselves.

PRISONERS OF WAR.

Eighteen prisoners of war, including five guerrillas, among whom was Lieut. N. B. Terry, of Mosby's command, arrived here last night from Harper's Ferry, from whence they were forwarded by Capt. A. D. Pratt, provost marshal of that post. The guerrillas were captured several days ago near Winchester by a portion of Gen. Sheridan's troops. Col. Ingraham committed the prisoners to the Old Cap-

THE ACCIDENT TO MR. F. SEWARD .- WE regret to announce that the injuries received by Mr. Frederick Seward, Assistant Secretary of State, in a fall, while on his way from Albana to this city, (mentioned in yesterday's Star.) are more serious than was first supposed, and that his right arm was fractured just below the elbow. The fracture is a painful one, and may, it is feared, confine Mr. Seward to his room for five or six weeks.

OPENING OF THE "SEATON HOTEL."-The magnificent hotel erected by our public spirited tellow citizens, Messrs. John H. Semmes and Wm. H. Brawner which has in its progress of erection attracted general attention by its stately proportions and superb interior arrangements, was duly inaugurated last night under the superintendence of the lessee, Mr. W

A number of invited guests were in attendance and the affair passed off in brilliant style with vocal and instrumental music, dancing, &c., closing up with a supper, bountiful and handsomely served, showing that Mr. Sluyter "knows how to keep a hotel." During the evening many of the visitors improved the opportunity to visit the different parts of the building and examined with much interest the elegantly furnished rooms and the thousand appliances of latest modern invention for comfort and convenience throughout the house going to make this probably the best adapted building altogether for hotel purposes in the country.

The building is 64 feet front by an average depth of 100 feet, extending from C street to Louisiana avenue, has six stories above ground and contains 145 rooms. The basement, with the extensive vaults running under the streets on both fronts, form an immense addition to the capacity of the building. The basement on the C street front is occupied by an admirably arranged kitchen, dining room for servants, laundry, (with steam drying room,) spacious store rooms, &c., &c. The Louisiana avenue basement front has a hair dressing salcon with unusually complete appointments, bath rooms, &c. On the Louisiana avenue front, first story, is the offices, entrances, gentlemen's sitting room, &c., of the hotel, and also a banking office (occupied by Washington City Savings Bank) and the drug store of Sparks & Co. On the Ostreet front, same story, is a handsome bar room, cigar and tobacco store, and two spacious store rooms for business purposes one of which will probably be used as a lunch room. The water closet arrangements on this floor are very complete.

On the 2d floor is the ladies' parlor, dining room, ladies' ordinary, and six other handsome parlors and chambers. The ladies' parlor and the dining room especially are fitted up in a style of richness and good taste making them very pleasing to the eye.

On the third story is the ladies' bath rooms, (admirably arranged,) water closets, and 22 richly furnished chambers, with linen room, as has also the other floors. The fourth story has 27 similarly furnished chambers, and the fifth and sixth 32 each.

Every room in the house is supplied with water and gas, with marble washstand and other appurtenances in the same perfect style. The office, sitting-rooms, bar-room, parlors, dining room, passages, &c., are heated by steam, capable of being adjusted in the matter of temperature with the greatest precision.
We do not remember at this moment the extent of gas-pipe, water-pipe, and steam-pipe in this immense building, but the aggregate would astonish the reader, as it did us. We should mention in passing that the building has a fire-plug of its own on each street, and that there is seven inches water in the building in-troduced by four-inch mains. The ground on which the building was erected was purchased by Mesers. Semmes and Brawner on the 25th of March, 1863, at $3 per toot, a price that rather astonished some of the real estate men on the ground at the time of the sale. The work of tearing down the old structures occupying the ground was commenced May 26, 1863, and the new building was completed on the 1st day of November, 1864. It is a matter of ust pride to the city to know that the entir

t building having being topied for that pur

structure is the work of Washington mechanics, Carpenter and Superintendent, Charles B

Church; Bricklayer, John H. Cassell; Granite work, Nicholas Acker; Cast-iron work, John McClellan; Plastering, Fenwick & Stewart; Painting and Glazing, John T. Cassell & Son; Plumbing, Steam and Gas-fitting, Thomas Thomrson; Steam-boiler and Hot Water Tanks, Gray & Noyes: Bell-wires and Speaking tubes, C. Schneider; Wrought iron work. J. H. Mead; Paperhanging, Bishop & Alexander; Frescoing, H. Schutter.

Until the erection of this building, it was not believed that iron castings of the extent and character of those to be furnished for the hotel could be executed in Washington; but Mr. Semmes thought it could be done, and Mr. McClellan thought he could do it, and the result has demonstrated that their confidence was not unfounded, and the work has been done to the entire satisfaction of Mr. Semmes. The carpenter's work, &c., by Church; the brick work, by J. H. Cassell, and the plastering by Fenwick & Stewart, are first class; and the painting, by Jehn T. Cassell & Son, (the imitation woods especially,) we certainly think the best job of the kind we have ever seen. The paperhanging by Bishop & Alexander, is also of a degree of excellence to bring much credit to these young workmen. The other mechanics engaged, who will be recognised as standing at the head of their respective callings, have one and all seemed to feel a matter of pride in the execution of their portion of the work. The Seaton House is to be conducted on the European plan and will be open all hours of the day and night, affording a desideratum long needed in this city. Mr. Sluyter is an experienced Hotel man and the public may count upon being well served by him. As above mentioned the entertainment was concluded by a handsome supper. After the ladies had left the room Mr. Edward Simms was called to the head of the table, and Alderman Lloyd having made a neat little speech calling out Mr. John H Semmes, that gentlemap came forward and made an appropriate reply in the course of which he produced the following letter from W. W. Seaton, Esq.:

WASHINGTON, November 11, 1861.

DEAR SIR: I regret that my inability to go from home at night will deny me the pleasure of accepting your obliging invitation for this evening.

The inauguration of a new grand hotel in the city, is an event interesting to all who regard the growth and prosperity of the seat of government; and the establishment which you are about to open under the name of the Seaton House (a name which you have much honored by the selection of) possesses a double claim on my regard, as, in the first place, it will be not only an advantage, but is an ornament to the city, for which we are indebted to the enterprise and liberality of one of our most esteemed citizens; and, in the second place, from your having bestowed on your magnificent hotel the name of the "oldest inhabitant," though, I am sorry to say, not the worthiest.

Notwithstanding the number and excellence of similar establishments in the metropolis, there is room for another; and sincerely wishing for you a most liberal share of public patronage, which, from what I hear, you will richly deserve, I beg to be considered your friend and servant, W. W. SEATON. friend and servant,

W. A. SLUYTER, Esq., Seaton House. Felicitous remarks were subsequently made by Alderman Utermehle, Mr. L. A. Gobright, of the Associated Press; Mr. Sluyter; Messrs. Tracey and Dunn, of the Republican; Mr. Foster, of the Chronicle; Mr. Blake, of the Star, Messrs. Ashley and Carpenter, of the New York Herald; Mr. Adams. of the New York World Mr. Bartlett, of the New York Post; Mr. Kellogg, of the New York Times; Dr. Blake, of this city, and others.
